

Audio player controls: play button, 10-second rewind, volume icon, 00:00 / 29:32, and full screen icon.

Dick Lawrence and the Sound of the 1920s

Topics

Dick Lawrence

This is one of the few surviving examples of a great program that was broadcast on station WXFM in Chicago in the early 1970s.

Addeddate	2010-07-06 20:56:02
External_metadata_update	2019-03-23T17:16:06Z
Identifier	DickLawrenceAndTheSoundOfThe1920s

Reviews

+ Add Review

Reviewer: Jan Paul Lubek - ★★★★★ - June 21, 2021

Subject: Dick Lawrence was very special; I had a chance to buy all of his shows: Dick Lawrence Week in Revue from his daughter Tracy Vencura but in 2002 I was broke big time
This is the only show out there, but there are many more shows, more sophisticated and last between 56 and 62 minutes: The Dick Lawrence Show: Week in Revue; here what i wrote about it:

mywikibiz.com/Dick_Lawrence encyclopediasupreme.org/Dick_Lawrence

If I get all shows I will play em on radio!

Reviewer: unheard of - - January 23, 2017

Subject: Dick Lawrence

Dick also worked at WXFM-FM in Chicago. He was a board engineer at the station when I did a show there too. He also did his "The Sound of the 20's" program there once a week. It would be great if someone would upload his programs, they were really enjoyable.

Reviewer: harron68 - ★★★★★ - January 5, 2016

Subject: DICK LAWRENCE

THE SHOWS WERE VERY GOOD, FEATURING TRUE STORIES INTERMINGLED WITH OLD MUSIC. I, TOO, HAVE MANY OF THE SHOWS ON CASSETTE AND WISH I HAD THE ENERGY TO PUT THEM UP HERE. KEN ALEXANDER AT WDCB HAS INFO ABOUT WNIB (CHICAGO) AND KNOWS A BIT ABOUT DICK LAWRENCE TOO.

Reviewer: MattC2 - ★★★★★ - April 18, 2014

Subject: Dick Lawrence

Just found this collection. A little late to the OP's question. Mr Lawrence passed in 1992. I used to enjoy listening on Saturday's. I recall seeing a posting regarding his family somewhere. Apparently they couldn't wait to get rid of all that "junk" (their words). It's a shame because I thought they were treasures.

Reviewer: jim vaughan - ★★★★★ - October 8, 2012

Subject: Dick Lawrence

I am a big fan of 'The Dick Lawrence Review'. This is the program that was aired on WNIB and WBIZ in the Chicago area. I am hoping to upload at least 30 of these one hour shows to 'The Archive'. Do you have any info regarding Mr. Lawrence's heirs or estate as i would like to seek their approval.