Dempsey is considered by many as one of the greatest heavyweights and "pound for pound" fighters who ever entered in the ring - the ultimate yardstick by which all heavyweights are measured; Jack could box or punch and came into the ring ready to rumble; During his career, he won the Heavyweight Championship of the World

He was a two-handed fighter who hit hard with both fists; He hit with combinations and possessed an extremely hard left hook; He moved well, left-right, in-out, bobbing and weaving; He was quick, rough, tough and powerful; In addition, he was game and cool under pressure and fought whatever style was needed to win; Deep inside himself, he carried a vicious "killer-instinct"

Jack was the size of a modern cruiserweight but hit like a super heavyweight; He often fought men 10-25 pounds heavier and actually handled bigger, stronger men easier than he handled lighter, quicker ones

Charley Rose ranked Dempsey as the #3 All-Time Heavyweight; Nat Fleischer ranked him as the #4 All-Time Heavyweight; Herb Goldman ranked him as the #5 All-Time Heavyweight; Dempsey was inducted into the Ring Boxing Hall of Fame in 1954 and the International Boxing Hall of Fame in 1990
