Dear Lupco:

We have received word of your recent concern and would like to apologize for the problem you had with our Pancakes & Sausage.

We try to be very careful when selecting suppliers who pack our products and try to use only those having a very high quality product and a fine reputation in the industry. However, we do understand at times errors can be made; and we certainly want to follow through on your concern to make certain it is investigated and the situation corrected.

If they have not already done so, a representative from our divisional office will be contacting you.

We have contacted Pinnacle Foods, who is the manufacturer of this product, for a complete investigation of your concern. A representative of Pinnacle Foods will be in contact with you promptly regarding this problem. Should you have any further questions concerning this matter, you may contact him/her at the following address:

2440 Old Milton Pkwy, Ste 300
Alpharetta, GA 30004

Again, we want to apologize for the incident and assure you your concern is being thoroughly investigated.

Sincerely,

Joann Bausic
