When Ridgewood beat Holy Cross 3-2 and Lisle 4-1 in the Rebels' season-opening tournament, Paul Frerking collected his 200th victory as coach at the Northridge school.

The Rebels finished third in their division of the Suburban Prairie Conference last year, with a 12-8 conference record and a 26-13 overall mark. Frerking has four all-conference players on that squad.

The Holy Cross Crusaders of coach Dan Eberle at Lisle 3-1 in the Ridge tournament before going to the Rebels. Joe Mazzuca and Jim Paduch had a hit and two runs, Kevin O'Brien and Mike Sherry both collected runs, and Kevin Walz had a run and two stolen bases. Alejandro Mendoza allowed three runs in three innings, and Sherry hurled a shutout frames.

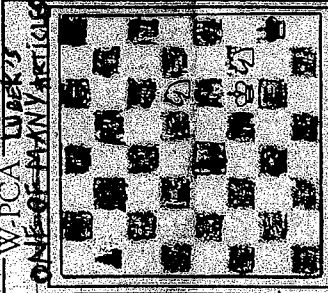

Ridgewood ace Jim Batch had a complete game and allowed three hits in the Rebels' win over the leaders of the East Suburban Catholic Conference, then Walz going 2-for-2. Paduch was victimized by an earned run with the score tied 2-2 in the bottom of the fourth inning, and Austin Villaseca allowed two hits in three innings
