Saint Agatha of Sicily is a Christian saint and virgin martyr. Her memorial is on 5 February. Agatha was born at Catania or Palermo, Sicily, and she was martyred in approximately 251. She is one of seven women, who, along with the Blessed Virgin Mary, are commemorated by name in the Canon of the Mass. Her tomb was originally in Catania in a cave, but then her body was taken to Constantinople for about nine years, before being brought back to Catania in 1126.
